

Rikke Rützov Arned

Rikke Rützov Arned is an architect (MAA). She graduated from The School of Architecture of The Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts in 2001 and immediately after, she started her own drawing office. She has mainly been working with interior design and other types of design and in addition, she has been teaching design and innovation at DTU (Technical University of Denmark) and is a co-founder of the furniture group Non Production.

Rikke has worked with a wide range of projects, including competitions in connection with the construction of concert halls, museums, ports, building components, etc.

Currently, her areas of work cover urban as well as furniture design.